

CUB SCOUTING.

GUIDE FOR NEW DEN LEADERS.

GREATER ST. LOUIS AREA COUNCIL
BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

THE METHODS OF SCOUTING.

To accomplish its purpose and achieve the overall goals of building character, learning citizenship, and developing personal fitness, Cub Scouting uses seven methods.

LIVING THE IDEALS. Cub Scouting's values are embedded in the Scout Oath, Scout Law, Cub Scout Motto, and Cub Scout sign, handshake, and salute. These practices help establish and reinforce the program's values in boys and leaders who guide them.

BELONGING TO A DEN. The den — a group of six to eight boys who are about the same age — is the place where Cub Scouting starts. In the den, Cub Scouts develop new skills and interest, they practice sportsmanship and good citizenship, and they learn to do their best, not just for themselves but for the den as well.

USING ADVANCEMENT. Recognition is important to boys. The advancement plan provides fun for the boys, gives them a sense of personal achievement as they earn badges, and strengthens family understanding as adult family members and their den leader work with the boys on advancement Adventures.

INVOLVING FAMILY AND HOME. Whether a Cub Scout lives with two parents or one, a foster family, or other relatives, his family is an important part of Cub Scouting. Parents and adult family members provide leadership and support for Cub Scouting and help ensure that boys have a good experience in the program.

PARTICIPATING IN ACTIVITIES. Cub Scouts participate in a huge array of activities including games, projects, skits, stunts, songs, outdoor activities, trips, and service projects. Besides being fun, these activities offer opportunities for growth, achievement, and family involvement.

SERVING HOME AND NEIGHBORHOOD. Cub Scouting focuses on the home and neighborhood. It helps boys strengthen connections to their local communities, which in turn support the boys' growth and development.

WEARING THE UNIFORM. Cub Scout uniforms serve a dual purpose, demonstrating membership in the group (everyone is dressed alike) and individual achievement (boys wear the badges they've earned). Wearing the uniform to meetings and activities also encourages a neat appearance, a sense of belonging, and good behavior.

SO, YOU'RE A NEW LEADER!

Congratulations and thank you for volunteering to make a difference in the lives of some really great boys. We know you've got a million questions and concerns, which is why you're reading this guide. We want you to feel comfortable in your new role. Relax and rest assured that in just a few minutes, you'll know enough to do an outstanding job.

WHAT DO YOU INVEST IN CUB SCOUTING AS A DEN LEADER?

- One afternoon or evening each week for a den meeting or other schedule your den agrees to that will allow your Scouts the time needed to successfully complete the Adventures.
- One evening each month for the pack meeting.
- One evening each month for the Cub Scout roundtable.
- One evening each month for a planning meeting with other pack leaders.
- Time spent in research and planning each month on such interesting subjects as native Americans, knights, the circus, or whatever the next monthly theme will be.
- Time invested in Cub Scout leader basic training.
- Cost of the Cub Scout leader uniform and a registration fee.

AS THE LEADER OF THE DEN,
YOU ARE AKELA.

YOUR CONTACTS.

Don't hesitate to ask for help. There are many people who want to help you provide the Scout experience for the boys in your den.

Preparing for Your First Den Meeting.

The plan takes you through your first den meeting. Afterwards, you will find additional meeting plans in the Den Leader Guide appropriate for your den (Tiger, Wolf, Bear, or Webelos/Arrow of Light) that your pack should help you with.

BEFORE THE MEETING.

- ❑ Contact the parents of your new Cub Scouts to tell them when your den meeting will begin and end, where it will be held, and if you need any help, such as bringing snacks. It's always good to get parents involved from the beginning.

- ❑ Gather the following items to be used in the meeting:
 - poster board and marker for the den code of conduct.
 - wide-tip permanent marker.
 - blank sheet of paper and pencil for each Scout.
 - sign-up sheet for Scouts to bring healthy snacks.
 - poster with the Scout Oath and a poster with the Scout Law for display.
 - small U.S. flag.
 - balloons for the "All Mixed Up" game. See page 8.

DEN LEADER'S FIRST 8 WEEKS

Week 1

- Create a MyScouting account and take Youth Protection Training. See pages 21 and 20.
- Attend leaders meeting.
- Ensure all Scouts have popcorn order forms and set a den popcorn goal. See page 21.
- Contact all members of your den.
- Make sure that you have a good contact list with phone numbers, email, and parents' names.
- Inform all your Cubs about when and where your den meetings will be held.
- Make sure parents know when you will be finished with your den meeting.
- Recruit parents to assist with your den meeting by asking them to do specific tasks.
- Take position-specific training.
- Conduct first den meeting — your program should be a simple get-to-know-you meeting and a simple game. See page 8.

Week 2

- Conduct den meeting.
- Make sure all Scouts have popcorn materials.
- Review Bobcat requirements with the Cubs. See page 10.
- Prepare a simple poster with the Scout Oath, Scout Law, and Cub Scout Motto.
 - Consider signing up for supplemental Cub Scout Leader Training, especially Cub Scout Leader Pow Wow and University of Scouting. See page 20.

Week 3

- Conduct den meeting.
- Review ideas available through council.
- Turn in advancements to pack advancement chairman for pack meeting next week.

OF RESPONSIBILITIES.

Week 4

- Remind parents and Cubs of the pack meeting this week and ensure their attendance.
- Arrive and greet all parents and Cubs to the pack meeting.
- Conduct den's part of the pack meeting.
- Remind parents of date and time of the next pack meeting.

Week 5

- Attend your pack's leaders meeting.
- Agree to den's part of the upcoming pack meeting.
- Communicate any information from leaders meeting to parents (pack meeting date, district Cub Scout camp-out, popcorn sale, etc.).

Week 6

- Conduct den meeting.
- Follow up with popcorn sale.
- Ensure that Cubs understand Bobcat requirements.
- Keep communicating to parents about pack information.
- Remind parents of popcorn order turn-in date.

Week 7

- Conduct den meeting.
- Make sure that advancements are turned in to the pack advancement chairman.
- Ensure that parents are aware that their Cub will be getting awards in ceremony at the pack meeting.

Week 8

- Arrive early at pack meeting to make sure that den is ready for their part of the meeting.
- Greet all parents and Cubs at the meeting.
- Encourage all Cubs on their participation during the pack meeting.
- Turn in popcorn orders to the popcorn chairman.

- Create a family information letter from you to each Scout family that includes:
 - information about the importance of handbooks and uniforms, where to obtain them, and a reminder for boys to always wear their uniform and bring their handbook to the meeting, etc. You can also mention the uniform guide website: BSAuniforms.org — a great place to get started.
 - days, time, and location of your meetings.
 - weekly home assignment.
This week the home assignment should be:
 - ~ Bobcat requirement 1 (learn to say the Scout Oath, with help if needed)
 - ~ Bobcat requirement 2 (learn and say the Scout Law, with help if needed)
 - ~ Bobcat requirement 7 (with your parent or guardian, complete the exercises in the booklet "How to Protect Your Children From Child Abuse" found in the front of each Cub Scout handbook.)
 - Other instructions pertinent to your den that the family should know.

THE DEN MEETING.

Gathering

Recruit one new person to help you with a gathering activity and work with the boys as they arrive to complete a Den Code of Conduct by writing down the types of good behavior Cub Scouts should use at den meetings. Find other gathering activities in the Den Leader Guides, the Cub Scout Leader How-To Book, or on the Internet.

The Meeting

Greet each family and introduce yourself. Provide them with the letter you created and remind them of important dates. Also ask if they had a chance to fill out the Family Talent Survey sheet. If they have not, have them fill one out and leave it with you tonight.

Opening

- Call the meeting to order by demonstrating the Cub Scout sign. Explain to the boys and parents the meaning of the sign and when to use the sign. See page 7.
- Show the Cubs how to do the Cub Scout salute. Then have them salute the flag of the United States of America and recite the Pledge of Allegiance. (You might need to have the words displayed on a poster.) Ask any parents present to participate in the pledge with the Cub Scouts. See page 7.

Closing

- Have the Cub Scouts form a circle. Teach them how to do the Cub Scout handshake. Have them shake their neighbor's hand. See below.
- Remind the parents to help their Scout and of any upcoming dates.
- Have Cub Scouts sign up to prepare and bring a healthy snack to the upcoming den meetings.
- Tell the Cub Scouts the importance of keeping your meeting space clean and have them help clean up the room.
- Thank everyone for attending.

CUB SCOUT HANDSHAKE.

Hold out your right hand just as you always do to shake hands. Put your first two fingers along the inside of the other boy's wrist.

SCOUT OATH.

On my honor I will do my best
To do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law;
To help other people at all times;
To keep myself physically strong,
mentally awake, and morally straight.

SCOUT LAW.

A Scout is...

Trustworthy	Obedient
Loyal	Cheerful
Helpful	Thrifty
Friendly	Brave
Courteous	Clean
Kind	Reverent

Webelos means WE'll BE LOyal Scouts.

Being LOYAL means that you will be true to your family, friends, Scout leaders, school and country; and, that you will keep the 3 promises of the Scout Oath.

CUB SCOUT SIGN.

The Cub Scout sign is made by raising the right hand straight up high over the head with the palm forward. The first two fingers are wide apart and pointing up as in a V. The two extended fingers stand for the Scout Oath and Scout Law; and they look like the wolf's ears ready to listen to Akela. The thumb covers the nails of the ring and little fingers.

The Cub Scout sign is given when saying the Scout Oath and Scout Law. It is also used by Akela to ask for quiet and attention. Akela in the den is you, the leader. When you give this sign, the boys should stop what they are doing and give you their complete attention.

CUB SCOUT SALUTE.

A salute is a way to show respect. We salute our flag to show respect for our country.

For the Cub Scout salute, use your right hand. Hold your fingers as you do for the Cub Scout sign. Keep the two straight fingers close together. Touch the tips of those fingers to your cap. If you are not wearing a cap, touch your right eyebrow.

CUB SCOUT MOTTO.

DO YOUR BEST.

You can do this as a cheer.
You ask the Cub Scouts,

"What's our motto?"

and they respond,

"Do ... Your ... Best!"

three times —
getting louder each time.

Pledge of Allegiance.

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States
of America,
and to the republic
for which it stands,
one nation under God, indivisible,
with liberty and justice for all.

Games & Meeting Activities.

- Have the Scouts play a game to get to know each other. You'll find additional games in the Den Leader Guides, the Cub Scout Leader How-To Book, or on the Internet. Copy People Bingo (opposite page) or create your own.
- Review what Cub Scouts listed as positive behaviors during the Gathering Activity. Together as a den, create your own den code of conduct.
- Teach the Scouts and parents the Scout Oath and Scout Law. See page 6.
- Teach the Scouts and parents what "Webelos" means. See page 6.
- Play the "All Mixed-Up Game."

ALL MIXED-UP GAME

Write out the 12 points of the Scout Law as seen on page 6. Cut each word into a strip and insert each one into a separate balloon. You should have 12 balloons, each with a strip inside. Blow up the balloons and place them in a large basket or bag. Divide the Cub Scouts into two teams and line them up next to each other with the basket of balloons between them.

Mark a starting and finish line. Each boy will select a balloon, run to the finish line, sit on the balloon to pop it, retrieve the paper inside, then run back to his team and tag the next Scout to go. Once all of the balloons have been popped, the den leader calls "Fix!" and the Cub Scouts then work together to get themselves into the correct order for the Scout Law. Have each Scout read his line, then have them all recite it together.

Note: If you have more than 12 boys in your den, include lines from the Cub Scout motto in separate balloons. If you have fewer than 12, have the Scouts go twice or have others fill in.

Cub Scout Spirit Song

I've got that Cub Scout spirit
Up in my head,
Deep in my heart,
Down in my feet.
I've got that Cub Scout spirit
All over me,
All over me to stay.

Find more games in the Den Leader Guides and Cub Scout Leader How-To Book or on the Internet.

PEOPLE BINGO

Find a different person to sign his or her name in each box.

When you get all boxes signed, call out BINGO!

I have a pet.	I was born in _____. (month)	I play baseball.	I have a pool.
My shoes have no laces.	I have curly hair.	My name has more than seven letters.	I was at a different school last year.
My favorite food is pizza.	I was born in another state.	I have been to the zoo.	I write with my left hand.
I know the principal's name.	I speak another language.	I walk to school.	I have read a chapter book.
I have a summer birthday.	I like vegetables.	I know how to swim.	I have traveled to another country.

BOBCAT REQUIREMENTS.

All Scouts earn the Bobcat badge upon joining — they learn the Scout Oath, Scout Law, handshake, salute, sign, and motto. After receiving the Bobcat badge, boys work on requirements based on their grade or age.

As a den leader, you will guide your Scouts in earning the Bobcat badge as soon as possible within their first 30 days.

□ 1. LEARN AND SAY THE SCOUT OATH (with help)

Before Cub Scouts agree to the Scout Oath, they need to know what it means.

ON MY HONOR I WILL DO MY BEST

Saying “on my honor” is like saying “I promise.” It means that you will do your best to do what the Scout Oath says.

The Scout Oath has three promises. Let’s look at what they mean.

TO DO MY DUTY TO GOD AND MY COUNTRY AND TO OBEY THE SCOUT LAW;

A duty is something you’re expected to do. At home, you might be expected to make your bed or take out the trash. You also have duties to God and to your country. You do your duty to God by following the teaching of your family and religious leaders. You do your duty to your country by being a good citizen and obeying the law. You also promise to live by the 12 points of the Scout Law.

TO HELP OTHER PEOPLE AT ALL TIMES;

Many people need help. A friendly smile and a helping hand make life easier for others. By helping other people, you are doing a Good Turn and making our world a better place.

TO KEEP MYSELF PHYSICALLY STRONG, MENTALLY AWAKE, AND MORALLY STRAIGHT.

The last part of the Scout Oath is about taking care of yourself. You stay physically strong when you eat the right foods and get plenty of exercise. You stay mentally awake when you work hard in school, learn all you can, and ask questions. You stay morally straight when you do the right thing and follow the 12 points of the Scout Law.

□ 2. LEARN AND SAY THE SCOUT LAW (with help)

The Scout Law has 12 points. Each is a goal for every Scout. He does his best to live up to the Scout Law every day. It is not easy to do, but a Scout always tries (he does his best).

A SCOUT IS...

TRUSTWORTHY

A Scout tells the truth and keeps his promises. People can depend on him.

LOYAL

A Scout is true to his family, friends, Scout leaders, school, and country.

HELPFUL

A Scout volunteers to help others without expecting a reward.

FRIENDLY

A Scout is a friend to everyone, even people who are very different from him.

COURTEOUS

A Scout is polite to everyone and always uses good manners.

KIND

A Scout treats others as he wants to be treated. He never harms or kills any living thing without good reason.

OBEDIENT

A Scout follows the rules of his family, school and pack. He obeys the laws of his community and country. Every day, he does his best to follow the 12 points of the Scout Law.

CHEERFUL

A Scout looks for the bright side of life. He cheerfully does tasks that come his way. He tries to make others happy.

THRIFTY

A Scout works to pay his way. He uses time, property and natural resources wisely.

BRAVE

A Scout can face danger even if he is afraid. He stands for what is right even if others laugh at him.

CLEAN

A Scout keeps his body and mind fit. He keeps his home and his community clean.

REVERENT

A Scout is reverent toward God. He is faithful in his religious duties. He respects the beliefs of others.

□ 3. SHOW THE CUB SCOUT SIGN

(and tell what it means)

□ 4. SHOW THE CUB SCOUT HANDSHAKE

(and tell what it means)

When you shake hands with another Cub Scout, place the first two fingers of your right hand along the inside of his right wrist.

□ 5. GIVE THE CUB SCOUT SALUTE

(and tell what it means)

Salute with your right hand. Hold your first two fingers close together. Touch the tips to your cap. Touch your eyebrow if you are not wearing a cap. This is the way to show respect to your leaders. You salute the flag to show respect to our country. And you can greet another Cub Scout this way.

□ 6. KNOW THE CUB SCOUT MOTTO

“Do Your Best” is one of the most important things Cub Scouts learn. When boys compare themselves to other people, they can become complacent (if they’re high achievers) or discouraged (if they have to work harder to accomplish the same goals). Focusing on doing their personal best helps them feel good about themselves and see their potential for doing even better. Help boys see that no one can find fault with them if they always do their best.

□ 7. GO OVER YOUTH PROTECTION

(with parent or guardian)

Complete the exercises in the booklet “How to Protect Your Children From Child Abuse” found in the front of each Cub Scout handbook.

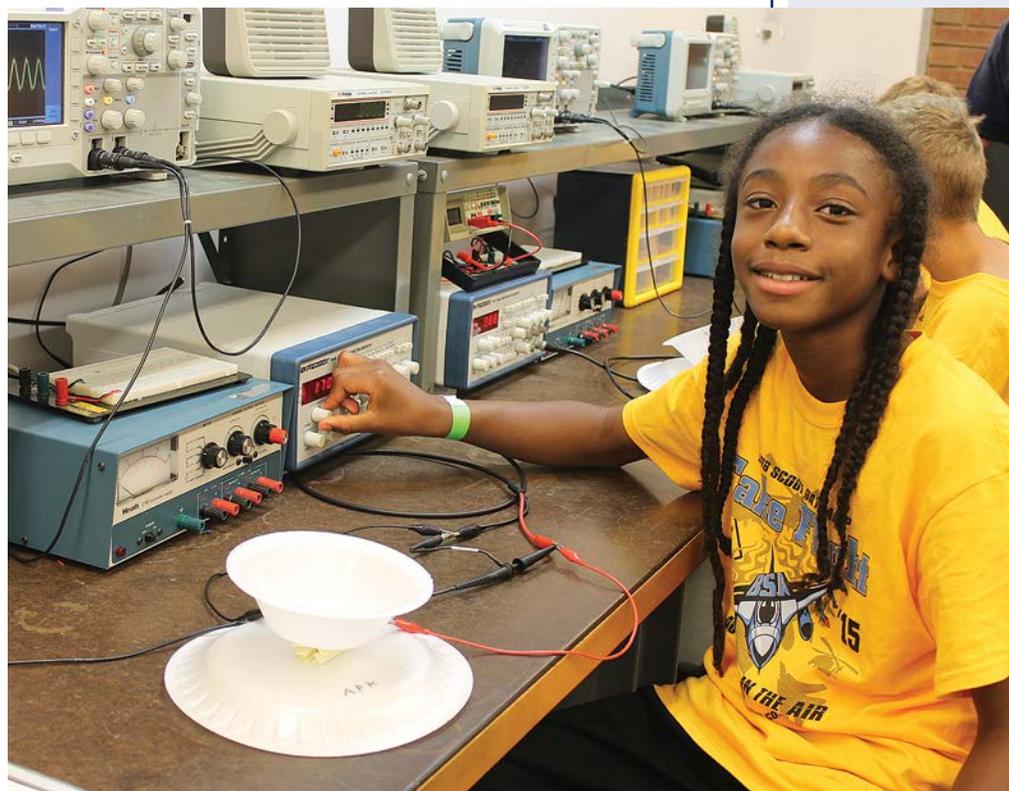

Dens Are Part of the Pack.

The Cubmaster leads the pack and the pack meetings. He or she is a primary source of information for the group and will be able to answer most of your questions.

The monthly pack meeting brings together den leaders, boys from every den, and their families to showcase everything the boys have learned and done in their individual den meetings. The pack meeting gives the boys a larger experience beyond their own den, and helps them to connect their individual activities to the entire Cub Scouting program.

PLANNING PACK MEETINGS.

While the Cubmaster is responsible for leading the pack meeting, he or she plans and conducts it with the help of other leaders. Every den shares the responsibility by doing its assigned parts. The challenge is to conduct a brisk, fast-moving meeting that will hold the interest of boys and family members. The secret to a good pack meeting is planning carefully to include a balance of seriousness and fun, the involvement of many people, and a lively pace.

CUBMASTER'S FIRST 8 WEEKS

Week 1

- Create a MyScouting account and take Youth Protection Training. See pages 21 and 20.
- Contact all den leaders to confirm date and location of all den meetings.
- Contact all den leaders about selling popcorn. See page 21.
- Conduct leaders meeting to get acquainted and to plan first pack meeting and answer any questions.
- Assign parts of pack meeting to dens and provide materials on what to do at the pack meeting.
- Plan next 3 months of pack meetings and pack activities.
- Encourage all leaders to take online trainings.
- Inform leaders of upcoming leader training sessions and invite them to attend roundtable meetings.

Week 2

- Contact pack committee chairman to make sure that all committee members understand their role.

- Follow up with den leaders to see how first den meeting went and answer any questions.
- Follow up with any new Cubs who did not attend a den meeting.
- Plan on attending Cub Scouting Day One. See page 24.
- Conduct an exciting Popcorn Kickoff. See page 21.

Week 3

- Talk with each den leader about their den meetings. Discuss any concerns and answer any questions.
- Ask if the den leaders need any materials for their den meeting or the pack meeting.
- Ensure that each den has turned in the Cub rank

OF RESPONSIBILITIES.

advancements to the pack advancement chairman, so that awards may be acquired.

Week 4 – Pack Meeting Week

- Follow up with den leader on how the popcorn sale is going.
- Confirm attendance from each den.
- Prepare an exciting recognition ceremony for Scouts' accomplishments during the summer.

Week 5

- Conduct leaders meeting to plan next pack meeting.
- Assign dens part of the upcoming pack meeting. Follow up on any needs from the dens.
- Follow up on Scouts who have not been attending den meetings.

Week 6

- Communicate with den leaders on the progress of the Scouts on their advancement and their popcorn sale.
- Make sure that the den leaders understand the Bobcat rank requirements as well as the requirements they need to turn into the pack advancement chairman during week 7.

Week 7

- Plan and prepare for Bobcat Ceremony that will be held at the next pack meeting.
- Ensure all new Scouts have completed the Bobcat rank.
- Make sure that the ceremony will be memorable for the Scouts and parents.

Week 8 – Pack Meeting Week

- Conduct the second pack meeting after sign-up.
- Conduct impressive Bobcat ceremony.
- Communicate how to turn in popcorn orders.
- Remind parents of popcorn order turn in date.
- Has your pack attended a district/council Cub Scout event?

Cubmasters: Get trained with leader-specific training! See page 20.

There are no hard-and-fast rules for planning and conducting pack meetings. Each meeting must be planned individually, keeping in mind the business items to be covered, the ceremonies to be held, and what is necessary for balance in the way of games, songs, and other fun. Elements of a successful pack meeting include the following.

- A detailed, well-planned, written program is conducted without delays.*
- All equipment and materials are on hand before the meeting begins.
- The meeting place is safe, clean, and large enough.
- A good seating arrangement is provided.
- The meeting is no longer than an hour, with opening and closing held on time.
- Announcements and speeches are not too long.
- The meeting is planned so that every den participates in some way.
- Impressive recognition, advancement, and graduation ceremonies are held.

* Visit scouting.org/Home/CubScouts/Leaders/CubmasterResources/PackMeetingPlans.aspx for 2015-16 and 2016-17 meeting plans.

SUGGESTED PACK MEETING FORMATS.

Before the Meeting

Adult leaders in the pack gather to be sure the meeting place is prepared; the room is set up, exhibits and displays are prepared, equipment is ready. Hold a gathering that provides interesting things for boys and families to do while waiting for everyone else to arrive.

Opening

A brief ceremony marks the beginning of the meeting. Opening pack ceremonies often consist of a flag presentation, a brief prayer, or a song.

Skit/Song

The program section of the meeting may include presentations and performances by the dens that demonstrate things the boys learned during the month, activities involving the entire audience, or a featured event.

Recognition

An important part of the pack meeting is formal recognition given to the Cub Scouts who have earned rank badges, Adventure belt loops, religious emblems, or other awards, and the leaders who have earned training awards or other awards.

Closing

The closing begins with announcements about special events, upcoming activities, and the date of the next pack meeting, followed by a closing ceremony.

After the Meeting

Following the pack meeting, many packs provide refreshments for an informal fellowship session, and the leaders and boys help put the meeting space back in order.

CEREMONY SUGGESTIONS.

Simple ceremonies open and close pack meetings and mark important events or accomplishments in the lives of the boys and families.

- Flag ceremonies teach boys how to handle and display the American flag.
- Induction ceremonies welcome new boys and their families into the pack.
- Advancement ceremonies celebrate the completion requirements for Bobcat, Tiger, Wolf, Bear, and Webelos ranks and the Arrow of Light Award.
- Closing ceremonies bring the meeting to a close and send everyone home with inspirational ideas to remember.

The Committee Supports the Den and Pack.

Adult volunteers make up the committee, which administers the affairs of each unit it operates. Committee members handle tasks as described below.

The committee chair is the executive officer of the committee. He or she works with the Cubmaster to assure that the pack provides the Cub Scout phase of the Scouting program.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS.

Secretary/Communications

- Retain a contact list of all Cub Scouts and parents for communication purposes.
- Maintain minutes from committee/leaders meetings.

Activities

- Arrange pack activities throughout the year such as:
 - ~ Pinewood Derby.
 - ~ Good Turn Activity (e.g., Scouting for Food).
 - ~ Service Project for your chartered organization (civic, educational, fraternal, religious, or other community-based organization that has applied for a received a charter to operate a BSA Scouting unit).

Membership

- Maintain registration and fee records of all Cub Scouts and leaders.
- Orient new families on the registration process as they join throughout the year.
- Work with district representatives to plan the fall/spring recruitment.
- Organize a new Cub Scout recruitment event.

Training

- Ensure all leaders have access to training through online and personal coaching.
- Maintain training records for all leaders in the pack.

COMMITTEE CHAIR'S FIRST 8

Week 1

- Create a MyScouting account and take Youth Protection Training. See page 20.
- Attend first leaders meeting.
- Make sure unit is signed up to sell popcorn with the council office and a unit popcorn kickoff is scheduled.
- Assign new committee members to specific committee responsibilities.
- Encourage pack committee members to take online training.
- Ensure that you have all information for committee members to assist with communications.

Week 2

- Provide information for parents regarding popcorn, district/council Cub Scout event, etc.
- Contact all committee members to make sure they understand their role with the Cub pack.
- Communicate with all new and returning parents to explain the role of the pack committee.

Week 3

- Make sure that all committee members have what they need for the pack meeting.
- Make sure advancement chair records and picks up awards.

WEEKS OF RESPONSIBILITIES.

Week 4

- Attend pack meeting.
- Greet all parents and their Cub Scouts.
- Make sure that all communication is clear and concise.
- Follow up with any committee members that were not able to attend pack meeting.
- Work with Cubmaster to set next leaders meeting.

Week 5

- Attend leaders meeting.
- Ensure that all committee members understand their roles so that den leaders can focus on their den meetings.
- Follow up after leaders meeting to make sure committee members have what they need for the upcoming month.

Week 6

- Send communication out to entire pack about upcoming activities.
- Make sure the committee has an impressive Bobcat ceremony planned for the upcoming pack meeting.

Week 7

- Follow up with committee members to ensure that they have communicated with den leaders and have promoted and encouraged those that need basic leader training to complete it as soon as possible.
- Make sure that all advancements have been collected and the advancement chairman understands how important it is to get awards correct.

Week 8

- Arrive early at pack meeting to make sure that the advancement ceremony will be impressive and memorable.
- Make sure that all pack communications to parents are clear and concise.

Treasurer

- Maintain the pack's financial records and present statements at each monthly leaders meeting.
- Maintain record of each Cub Scout's account.
- Work with the popcorn sale/Camp Card sale chairman to coordinate sale.
- Reimburse leaders for expenses they might incur for approved den projects.

Camping

- Serve as the Leader Outdoor Experience-trained leader for pack camping trips.
- Work with Cubmaster to plan and execute pack camping trips.
- Provide a camping trip supply list for parents.
- Coordinate registration of Cub Scouts for district/council Cub Scout events.

Advancement

- Work with each den leader to ensure that advancements are turned in each month prior to pack meeting.
- Coordinate with Cubmaster so that each pack meeting has a meaningful advancement ceremony. A great resource is the Ceremonies for Packs and Dens book and the Internet. See page 15.
- Track and maintain records of each Cub Scout so that all leaders know the status of each Cub Scout's rank.
- Input advancement records online in order to acquire the rank and advancement patches from the Scout Shop each month prior to the pack meeting.

Special Events

- Work with the pack activity chairman to coordinate any special events such as:
 - ~ Memorial Day flag placement.
 - ~ Good Turn activity.
 - ~ Service project for chartered organization.

Popcorn Sale/Camp Card Sale

- Coordinate exciting kickoff with the Cubmaster.
- Encourage parents to participate in pack's sale.
- Work with pack treasurer to maintain sale records.
- Serve as the contact person for the pack so that the council may communicate information about the popcorn sale.

CUB SCOUT ACTIVITIES.

BLUE & GOLD BANQUET.

Cub Scouts celebrate Scouting's birthday at a Blue & Gold Banquet in February or March. Scouting's anniversary is February 8.

DISTRICT ACTIVITIES.

Throughout the program year, each district holds various activities for Cub Scouts. Visit stlbsa.org to view upcoming Scouting activities near you.

PINEWOOD DERBY.

This project joins parent(s) and son in building a race car made from a block of wood, according to particular specifications. Cubs race one another, with winners of each heat advancing to the next level.

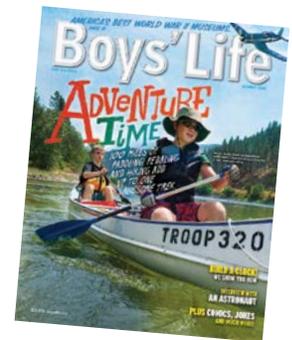

SCOUTING FOR FOOD.

This annual food drive in November benefits local food pantries. Part of the Scouting program is to help other people, and this food drive provides a service project in which Scouts participate.

Boys' Life.

Official youth publication of the Boy Scouts of America. The age-based Boys' Life editions (10 and younger; 11 and older) have interesting features on Scouting, sports, hobbies, magic, science, and U.S. history. There are also jokes, comics, and short stories. The monthly magazine is $12 per year. A Cub Scout and Boy Scout in same family should each subscribe to their age-specific edition.

CUB SCOUT CAMPING.

CUB SCOUT DAY CAMP/TWILIGHT CAMP.

Day camp is a fun-filled week of adventure for Cub Scouts who will be in first through fifth grades. These camps are held at various locations throughout the Greater St. Louis Area Council geographical area. These camps offer a range of activities, which may include archery, BB guns, arts and crafts, field sports, nature, Scout skills, and many other themed activities.

GRIZZLY CAMP.

Cub World's Grizzly Camp at Beaumont Scout Reservation is for Cub Scouts and Webelos entering second through fifth grades. Grizzly Camp offers several sessions, each with its own theme. Activities revolve around each theme in crafts and outdoor games, sports, and nature. Cubs can also explore the nearby pirate ship, miner's camp, Castle Blackhawk, and playground equipment. Leadership is provided by a paid staff, and parents are encouraged to attend to participate with their sons for one day or the entire week.

PARENT & PAL WEEKENDS.

Parent & Pal is an action-packed weekend camping experience for a Cub Scout and his parent(s). This weekend of living at a real Scout camp, doing the things Cub Scouts do — BB guns, archery, hiking, crafts, games, and more. It is the perfect introductory camping program for new or inexperienced campers. A tent is provided for one night's camping. These weekends are held during June and July at Beaumont Scout Reservation, Camp Lewallen, and S bar F Scout Ranch.

WOLF & BEAR CAMPS.

These camps expose younger Cub Scouts to the fun and excitement of overnight camping to prepare them for Webelos and Boy Scouts. Boys live in tents provided by the council and enjoy activities such as hiking, swimming, learning outdoor skills, and campfires while working on activity badges. Wolf and Bear Camps are three days and two nights at Camp Lewallen and Beaumont Scout Reservation.

WEBELOS RESIDENT CAMP.

Weeklong Webelos Camp takes place at Beaumont Scout Reservation. Webelos Mini-Camp is three days and two nights at Beaumont Scout Reservation, Camp Lewallen, and Pine Ridge Scout Camp. Both Webelos camps take place in June and July and are designed for Scouts who are starting fourth and fifth grades.

Activities include swimming, nature, archery, BB guns, belt loop activities, campfire programs, sports and more. Scout staff is on hand to run these programs. During free time, Scouts can hike and explore.

TRAINING.

A cornerstone of the Scouting program is training. Some of the training is conducted in your unit; others are available for you to work on by yourself.

Leader-Specific Training

Specific training gives leaders the tools needed to perform their duties within the unit.

- Cubmasters and assistant Cubmasters
- Pack committee chairs and members
- All den leaders and assistant den leaders (Tiger, Wolf, Bear, and Webelos)

Youth Protection Training

Youth protection training is designed to help you keep our youth safe from abuse. You will learn the Boy Scouts of America's Youth Protection Guidelines, signs of abuse, and how to report suspected abuse. After each section of material, you will answer questions about that section's topic. Completion is noted automatically in the BSA training records database if the module is experienced online. Visit MyScouting.org to begin this training.

Roundtable

This monthly district meeting provides quality resources, knowledge, and skills to unit leaders to enable and motivate them to deliver an outstanding program to their Scouts.

This Is Scouting

This Is Scouting provides an overview of the Scouting organization, including history, values, programs, youth protection, community involvement, and training. The module consists of six video sections, each followed by a brief quiz. Visit My.Scouting.org to begin this training.

Fast Start Training

This is an online orientation for your position that you take before Den Leader Specific Training. Sign in at MyScouting.org, click on the E-learning tab on the left side of the page, and scroll down to the course for the rank of your den.

Cub Scout Fast Start

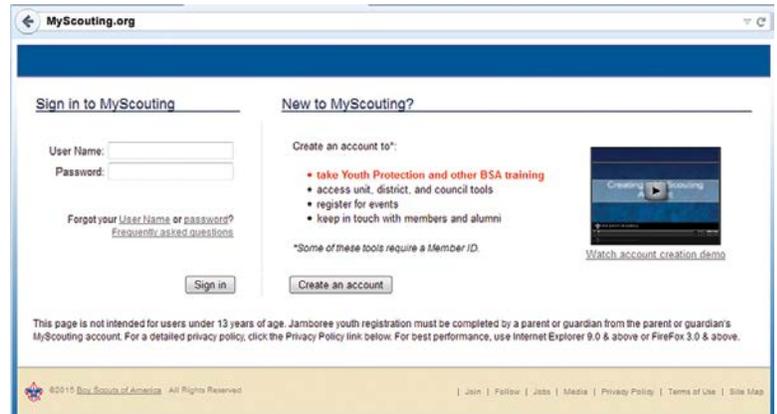

Prior to running your first den or pack meeting, Cub Scout Leader Fast Start is the initial training course that will help you understand the fundamentals of the Cub Scouting program. You will learn your specific responsibilities, how to keep meetings fun and exciting, and what other resources there are to help assist you in planning den or pack meetings.

For more information, visit training.stlbsa.org.

MYSCOUTING ACCOUNT.

To access this training, a leader must establish a MyScouting account. This online tool provides leaders with training updates, training links and much more. Much of this training will be offered in your district in a face-to-face course as well.

IT'S POPCORN TIME!

Building a strong annual program is a great way to keep your Scouts active and interested in Scouting. Funding your program is equally important, as Scouts benefit from paying their own way. Units need a secure and stable source of income that a strong popcorn sale can provide. Monies raised by units have been used to cover the cost of badges and advancement, special events, and pack equipment.

IMPORTANT DATES:

Sept. 1	Popcorn sale begins
Sept, 26-27	Blitz Weekend No. 1
Oct. 17-18	Blitz Weekend No. 2
Oct. 23	Popcorn sale ends; popcorn & prize orders due
Nov. 13	Popcorn pickup
Dec. 4	Popcorn money due to council
