- A weekend camping extravaganza hosted by Greater St. Louis Area Scouting.
- For all ages of Scouts, Venturers, and Explorers, along with volunteer leaders, Scout families, and the general public.
- Held at all six council campgrounds on one weekend: April 25-27, 2025.
- All locations will be bustling with exciting activities! Many will be standardized across all camps to ensure a consistent and exceptional experience regardless of the location chosen. Activities planned include target sports, fishing, Scout skills, nature exploration, games, STEM experiments, and many more! Each location will also host a Saturday night campfire program with live entertainment!
- In addition to these, each camp will have experiences that showcase its best activities and unique features, and will have a variety of programs hosted by community partners.

WHAT IS ADVENTURE SUMMIT 25

WELCOME

1

Greetings! Let me be the first to welcome you to a first-of-its-kind experience for Scouting in the Greater St. Louis Area! Adventure Summit 25 will bring the Scouting community together like never before. We'll gather at all six camp properties to celebrate and experience the best of Scouting, and we'll have an absolute blast.

We expect thousands of people to gather for a weekend of fun and exciting program opportunities, top-notch campfires, live music, electrifying competitions, and regular video updates from each property. As you might imagine, there's a huge team of dedicated volunteers and Scouting Professionals working behind the scenes to make the event a success. I want to take this opportunity to thank them for their hard work, and to encourage you to thank them during the event.

This event will be a milestone in our council's history, and I hope you'll be a part of it! We are looking forward to welcoming you to Adventure Summit '25!

Yours in Scouting,

Chris Kallaos
Adventure Summit 25 Chair

WHO CAN ATTEND

Everyone is welcome! Cub Scouts, Scouts, Venturers, Explorers, Sea Scouts, adult volunteers, Scouting families, and the general public are invited to attend. Come with your unit or as a family.

Some activities will be limited to youth of certain ages. Children not yet enrolled in kindergarten are welcome to attend but will not be able to participate in any of the age-restricted activities. Parents are directly responsible for the care and supervision of their children. Guests not registered in a Scouting program are only permitted to visit Saturday, April 26, cannot camp overnight, and will submit a Non-Scout Guest Hold-Harmless agreement upon arrival.

Leadership and Youth Protection Guidelines: All participants must adhere to Scouting America's youth protection guidelines, including providing adequate adult supervision and appropriate camping accommodations. For more info, review the Guide to Safe Scouting at <https://www.scouting.org/health-and-safety/gss/toc>

REGISTRATION

Cost: $30 per youth / $15 per adult

- Scouts and Scouters: Registered members of Scouting programs can attend on Saturday or camp for the weekend! The price is the same for both.
- Non-Scout Guests: Guests not registered in Scouting programs are welcome too, but can only attend on Saturday and no overnight camping is permitted.

Please note that food is not included in the event cost. Food may be available for purchase at some locations, but guests are responsible for their own meals.

Register at: <https://scoutingevent.com/312-as25>

ACTIVITIES

This isn't your typical camporee! It's a unique, unforgettable experience with adventures at six campgrounds. While many activities are standardized, each location offers special attractions showcasing its unique features. Participants can explore activities at their own pace, capped off by a thrilling Saturday night campfire with skits, music, and demos. Note: Some activities have age restrictions.

- Target and Range Sports: Rifles, shotguns, archery, BB guns, airsoft, tomahawks, and more.
- Nature and Scout Skills: Explore nature and hone Scouting abilities.
- Games and STEM: Nerf battles, bounce houses, obstacle courses, and hands-on STEM fun.
- Scouting History: Celebrate Scouting's rich legacy.
- Special Guests: Local vendors, conservation groups, and wilderness experts.
- Unique Campground Experiences: Rappel at S bar F or explore Mud Cave at Beaumont. Check out the activity guides for each campground, found later in this manual, for more!

Please Note: All activities and information in this manual are subject to change based on availability and unforeseen circumstances. We will do our best to communicate any updates or adjustments as soon as possible. Thank you for your understanding and flexibility!

WHAT TO BRING

ESSENTIAL PACKING LIST

Campers should pack wisely and lightly. Check the weather before you pack, and try to limit electronics, as most campsites lack electricity and there will be no charging stations available.

BRING

- For overnight campers: tent, sleeping bag, camping gear, change of clothes, toiletries
- Meals, cooking gear, plates, and utensils
- Closed-toed, closed-heel walking shoes
- Re-usable water bottle
- Flashlights or headlamps with extra batteries
- Sunscreen
- Rain gear (Activities will be rain or shine!)
- Non-aerosol insect repellent
- Any necessary medications
- Scouting America members must bring Annual Health and Medical Record (parts A and B)

DO NOT BRING

- Alcohol or drugs
- Fireworks
- Bikes, skateboards, ATVs
- Firearms
- Pets

PARTICIPANT MEALS

Please note that food is not included in the event cost. Food may be available for purchase at some locations, but guests are responsible for their own meals. Scouts are encouraged to plan and prepare meals together with their unit (e.g. troop).

SAMPLE MEAL PLAN FOR SCOUT GROUPS

- Friday Dinner: plan to eat off-site before arriving, bring sandwiches or pizza, simple camp meal, cracker barrel, snacks
- Saturday Breakfast: yogurt, fruit, bagels, pastries, premade breakfast sandwiches or breakfast burritos, something simple you only have to heat up (consider distributing lunch at breakfast so that Scouts don't have to come back to the campsite)
- Saturday Lunch: grab-and-go, pre-packaged lunch sacks with sandwiches, chips, fruit and a drink
- Saturday Dinner: simple campout meal, already prepared camp meals to be re-heated, freeze dried camp meals, walking tacos, burgers/hot dogs, prepare as much as possible before
- Snacks: make sure to have snacks readily available for all participants

IMPORTANT INFO . . .

JOIN THE STAFF

---

We're on the lookout for fantastic leaders to help run Adventure Summit 25! Event staff will pay a $25 fee to cover meals and will receive exclusive staff swag at no extra cost. Each campground lead will select their team, so reach out to them directly or fill out the interest form at <https://stlbsa.org/as25>, and we'll notify them of your interest! Staff are encouraged to be 18+ years old. If they're younger, they need to participate and enjoy the experience!

HEALTH AND SAFETY

- All youth and adults registered in Scouting programs must bring their Annual Health and Medical Record (Parts A & B) but keep it with leaders, parents, or themselves—event staff won't collect forms. Inform staff of any health concerns at check-in.
- Unit leaders and families should handle basic first aid, as they would on any campout. First aid stations will be available for additional needs.
- Non-Scout guests don't need a health form but must participate only in suitable activities and submit a Non-Scout Guest Hold-Harmless Agreement upon arrival.
- Additional parental consent forms or waivers may be required for certain activities.

CHECK-IN PROCEDURES

Each campground has its own check-in instructions. Refer to their respective pages in this guide for more information.

SPECIAL NEEDS

Event organizers are collaborating with the Special Needs Committee to ensure that Adventure Summit 25 is as accessible and inclusive as possible. For specific inquiries, please contact Nick Schubert at nicholas.schubert@scouting.org.

WEATHER

Adventure Summit 25 will proceed rain or shine. We'll monitor the weather closely and collaborate with event staff to ensure safety.

REFUND POLICY

We understand that plans can change unexpectedly. However, due to the nature of events at our campgrounds and the commitments we must make in advance, we are unable to offer refunds once registration is complete. We appreciate your understanding and encourage you to contact us if you have any questions or concerns.
