

Biographical Statement

Martez D. Moore, CFRE

Director of Field Service

Boy Scouts of America

Martez began his Scouting career in 2002 as a Neighborhood Executive (Para-Professional) in Nashville, TN. He was commissioned as a professional scouter in 2003 and served the Middle Tennessee Council as a District Executive. In 2004 Martez deployed to Fallujah, Iraq with the United States Marine Corps. Upon return from deployment Martez was promoted to Senior District Executive. In 2007 he was promoted to field director of smallest service area, and in 2008 promoted to field director of the largest service area. In 2012 Martez was promoted to Director of Field Service/ COO of the Middle Tennessee Council. In 2014 Martez was promoted to Learning Delivery Specialist/Scouting University and selected as Training Manager in 2019. In 2020 Martez was promoted to Director of Field Service in the Greater St. Louis Area Council.

Martez is an Eagle Scout, Vigil Honor member, and Wood Badge Trained.

Martez graduated from Tennessee State University with a degree in mass communications.

Martez is married to Twana who is a small business owner and has two sons. One of them is an advancing Scout and the other an Eagle Scout.

Hobbies are playing the drums, running, crossfit, snowboarding, motorcycles, and vacationing with his family.