

Thank You

Leader Recognition

Does your unit recognize your volunteers?

Our scouts love and look forward to receiving patches and advancement ceremonies. Don't you think your leaders and volunteers would like some appreciation.

Achievement

The uniform shows the wearer's activity, responsibility, and achievement. What each youth or adult member has accomplished with program opportunities can be recognized by the insignia worn on the uniform.

Types of Recognition

Official Recognition:

- Certificates
- Pins
- Medals
- A patch usually with a square knot

Fun Recognition:

- Certificates
- Homemade statues
- Cards
- Whatever you can think of

Square Knots

Den Leader Training Award

This award recognizes den leaders who have completed training, tenure, and performance requirements. It is available for Lion, Tiger, Wolf, Bear, and Webelos den leaders and can be earned in each

Scouter's Training Award

This award can be presented to registered who have two years' tenure in the unit and have completed position-specific training and other performance requirements designed to encourage and recognize those who give of their resources to make the unit successful.

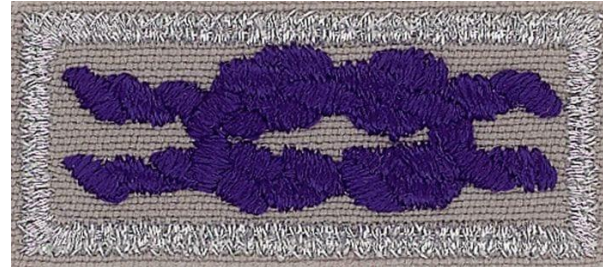

Cubmaster's/Scoutmaster's Key

This award is for Cub Scout adult leaders with three years' tenure—including at least two years as Cubmaster—who have completed training and other performance requirements. The Cubmaster's Key is also a great way to incorporate a succession plan for Cubmaster.

Adult Religious Emblems

Most of the major religious bodies in the United States have programs to recognize adult volunteers who demonstrate faith, observe their creeds or principles, and give service.

International Scouter's Award

To recognize adult volunteers who promote international Scouting on all levels who in turn help broaden the perspectives of Scouting.

ServiceStars

All youth and adult members who have at least one year of tenure with the BSA may wear service stars. The stars are worn with the appropriate color background for the phase of Scouting in which the service was rendered.

Veteran Award

To recognize BSA individual members for tenure in Scouting. 5-, 10-, 15-, and 20-year awards are awarded by the local council
