

Ways to Give

Did you know there are many ways to support the Greater St. Louis Area Council, Boy Scouts of America besides writing a check? With a little planning, you can include a gift to the Council within your overall estate or financial plans that will help preserve the Council's mission and provide you with tax benefits in return.

Annual & Matching Giving

Make an annual pledge to the Greater St. Louis Area Council. Gifts can be made in cash, stock, or other assets through Donor Advised Fund donations. Multiply your giving's impact through corporate matching funds.

Bequests, Wills, & Trusts

Leave a legacy for the youth served by the Greater St. Louis Area Council by naming the Council as a beneficiary in your Will or trust.

Beneficiary Giving

Make a lasting impact for the youth served by the Greater St. Louis Area Council by naming the Council as a beneficiary of your annuity, retirement plan, or life insurance policy.

Endowed Giving

Safeguard the future of the Council by directing your gift to our endowment fund. By making a gift to the endowment, your gift is an investment in our future, helping us grow and thrive for years to come.

Many of these options can be combined and can offer varied tax benefits for you or your estate. Please consult a tax or financial advisor, and/or attorney for specific information on how these options relate to your situation.
