About Us

Established in 1919, Troop 21 is one of the oldest and most active Boy Scout troops in the Greater St. Louis Area Council. We believe in growth through travel, giving the young men in our troop unrivaled opportunities to see the world. Troop 21 is a boy-led troop: our committed adult leaders mentor the scouts as they lead the troop and its patrols.

Troop 21 has given me the opportunity to learn valuable leadership skills, as our Scoutmaster Tom Coscia enables us to lead through giving us responsibilities leading scouts at meetings and on campouts. I've been able to go on fantastic trips to great places: Yellowstone, the Grand Tetons, Toronto, and my favorite: Philmont. These are memories of a lifetime!
